Preparing for the Gift

Advent is such an important and meaningful time, reminding us not only of gifts to buy but the ultimate Gift we receive. We slow down to prepare ourselves for the arrival with candles and special liturgies, singing, special foods and traditions – including the MHUCC daily email/booklet of stories and reflections. As well, pageants, candlelight services, and an afternoon choir concert.

On the first Sunday of Advent, about 40 people gathered to share a meal, make ornaments, and put the trees up in the sanctuary. We ended in the sanctuary with only the light of the trees, singing carols, hearing a story, and listening to a poem shared by children. It was a wonderful way to begin the season.

I look forward every year to sharing my collection of nativity sets – some that I have collected from around the world, gifts I have received, and a few that I said, I don't need anymore but couldn't pass it up. This multicultural witness surrounds us in worship in the sanctuary. Last year I took pictures of my nativities around the church. This year I took them all to the beach – from Imperial Beach to Mission and Pacific Beach to the cliffs above Torrey Pines. It was great fun. A few of them washed into the tide, but I quickly rescued them!

*Blessings as we prepare together,
Pastor David*

Moderator Message

If people feel a bit ambivalent about or a bit unready for the holiday season arriving, a good anecdote can be found by attending a Sunday service or another activity at MHUCC. Just a week ago from this writing, we celebrated Thanksgiving on Sunday Nov. 20th with a wonderful feast in our beautifully decorated Fellowship Hall. No one left hungry for sure! We started looking ahead to the season of Advent in our service that same day considering what each person felt gave them hope.

Our wonderful “gift that keeps on giving” to the congregation started on the 1st day of Advent – the Advent Devotional daily scripture-reflection-story will continue through December 24th. If you are not receiving this through email or previously received a hardcopy booklet, contact the church office to be included.

A sizable group of all ages came together the evening of Nov. 27th for a celebration of Advent complete with a meal with delicious Filipino food, hot beverages and friendly folks to share a table, a choice to make crafts, ornaments, or set up Christmas Trees in the sanctuary, and the opportunity to sing some Christmas Carols together in the fully decorated sanctuary.

December brings both familiar and new Christmas events at church. The first Sunday 12/4 will provide the chance to help those rebuilding their lives after fleeing domestic violence by picking up a star from a tree during coffee hour to purchase a gift for an El Nido family.

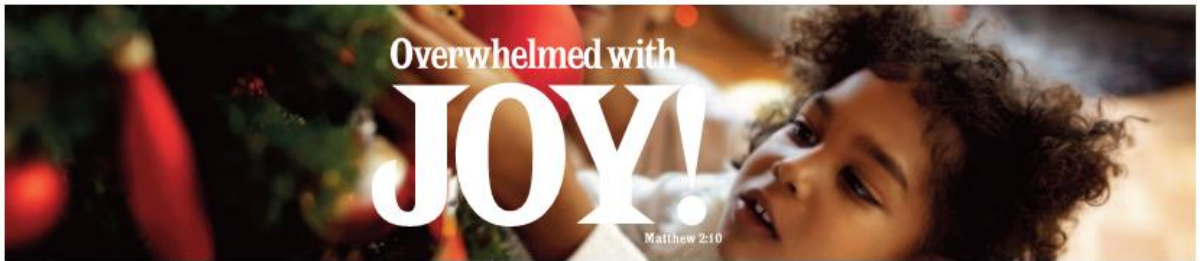

There will be an Angel Tree Party on December 10th to help provide holiday cheer to families and especially children of incarcerated parents. A new activity for children both within the church family and the larger community is the Christmas Carol Camp offered after school on Thursdays 12/1, 12/8, and 12/15. For those dealing with grief this holiday season, there are two additional meetings of a grief support group on Tuesdays 12/8 and 12/13 at 2 PM. Our neighbor church, Mission Hills Methodist, is offering a Blue Christmas Service on Monday 12/19 at 6 PM. The MHUCC traditional events many look forward to every year will indeed be back this year. Sunday Dec. 18th brings us the Children’s Christmas Pageant during the morning service and our wonderful choir under Angelica’s Eclar’s direction will be presenting a concert that afternoon at 4 PM. There will be both a 4 PM and 10 PM service to choose between on Christmas Eve and with Christmas December 25th falling on Sunday this year, there will be a special Christmas Day Service that day at the usual 10 AM.

Part of our church’s mission statement includes the statement that whoever you are and wherever you are on your faith journey, you are welcome here. Following that belief, there is no one prescribed way to approach the holiday season and celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. Find what works and is most meaningful for you. The one absolute I would conclude with is that our church Advent season events will be far more satisfying and leave you with the true meaning of the season instead of “Black Friday” sales or “Cyber Monday” offers.

Wishing you blessings this Advent season and into the New Year, Carol

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Mission Hills UCC's Children Ministry has incorporated singing and learning of new songs during Sunday school. They sang "Love is Love" with the youth during a Sunday service. Big thanks to Ellie Mout and Kris Abels that made this possible. We also had our very first Celebrity Sunday, where Judge Laurie Halgren shared exciting stories about being a judge, and the kids got to ask her questions. She also read a book called "Big Al" by Andrew Clements that taught us we couldn't judge people or things by how they look on the outside.

We're so excited for our December 18th 10am Worship Service when we'll have both carolers from the Christmas Carol Camp and the performance of the "On Christmas Night" Christmas pageant! Please mark you calendars. It's going to be a wonderful service full of joy!

Practices for the pageant will be during Sunday School on: December 4 & 11

The Christmas Carol camp will be held on the first three Thursdays of December at 1:30pm: December 1, December 8 & December 15

Marjorie Wahlsten: I was born in San Diego during World War II, about 2 miles from where I now live in Hillcrest. I've lived in San Diego County most of my life. My husband and I moved from Poway to Hillcrest in 1990. He said I was "returning to my roots." We both worked for the City of Poway and I retired as City Clerk. We spent 2 years traveling in our motorhome. Neither one of us had seen much of the United States and we enjoyed exploring. I met my goal of visiting and touring all the State Capitol buildings and my Christmas decorations include ornaments I purchased in many of their gift shops. My husband died in 2016 but I'm fortunate to have a close group of friends that enjoy theatre, concerts, museums, etc. I've been a volunteer at the San Diego Zoo for the past two years and enjoy sharing their conservation message with guests.

When I was searching for a new church home, I visited MHUCC because my good friends, Reba and Imre Quastler, had spoken so highly of it during their long membership. I appreciate the social justice outreach and it's nice to have a church I can walk to. I look forward to becoming involved.

Frank Ruiz: Born and raised in Clark Air Base, Philippines, Frank is the fourth child of eight children. Dad, Domingo Sr, was in the United States Airforce for 28 years while mom, Lolita, took care of the kids. Frank came to the United States at the age of 18 and lived in San Jose, CA. Living now in San Diego, he's been a commercial truck driver for 20+ years. When he's not working, he enjoys fishing, playing basketball, cooking, and studying the Bible with other men from different churches and denominations. And most significantly, he loves spending time with his kids and wife, Artcel.

Artcel Ruiz: Born and raised in Manila, Philippines, and came to San Diego when she was 15. She has been married to her husband, Frank, for 26 years. They have two children, Justin, 25, and Jianna, 17. Artcel recently graduated from Claremont School of Theology with a master's degree in Divinity. The next goal is to pursue a Doctor of Ministry.

Artcel has been leading life groups, chairing various ministries, working with children, and occasionally preaching at her church for years. She is passionate about empowering and being an advocate for children. Her desire is for the kids and their families to experience and personally know God.

Wearing so many hats—mother, wife, employee, friend—can be a lot, so having “me-time” is a non-negotiable for Artcel. Getting lost in a book, taking walks, having hot cocoa, or unwinding with favorite tv shows or a play is vital.

From BREAD and CUP to FAITH and GIVING

Thank you to everyone who responded so generously. Our stewardship campaign is off to great start. As of today, we have 82 pledges for a total of almost $371,000.

If you have yet to pledge to the mission and ministry of MHUCC for 2023, we invite you to call, email the church office or pledge online. Thank you!

New Year's Day Service - Online Only

Worship on January 1st will be online only. Our six partnership churches are collaborating on a pre-recorded worship service. Please mark your calendars.

History Corner

Just a few blocks from our church is the Mission Hills United Methodist Church, a lovely building on the corner of Ft. Stockton and Lark. Their church was founded in 1915, just 3 years after Mission Hills UCC (then known as Mission Hills Congregational.) Our church Council minutes from 1932 share that the Methodist Church was “encumbered with mortgage and debts” and some of their members approached our Council with the proposal to combine churches, - “sharing the religious responsibility of this community.” Our church was willing to consider this and approached the Congregational general conference. Despite the fact that we also had financial struggles during those years (mid-1930's), there seems to have been no serious attempt to join the congregations. Today, we are happy to say that we are “sharing the religious responsibility of the community” through occasional joint programs. We recently worked together to sponsor an anti-gun violence vigil in Pioneer Park and are currently joining together for a 4-week grief support group.
